Consecutively numbered footnotes will follow the British footnotes referencing system: author, year of publication, page, and figure/table, if applicable (e.g.: Pippidi 1967, 84, fig. 3/4). An annex will be added at the end with the list of publications in alphabetic order according to the name of the author, and chronologically in case of several publications of one author.

Cited works will be listed as follows:

- for books: name of the author, year of publication, title, volume (number and title), edition, series (collection), number in the series or collection, city of publication.

E.g.:

Hendy, M.F. 1969, Coinage and Money in Byzantine Empire 1081-1261, Dumbarton Oaks Center of Byzantine Studies, 12, Washington

Grierson, Ph. 1973, Catalogue of the byzantine coins in the Dumbarton Oaks Collection and the Whittemore Collection, III, 2. Basil I to Nicephorus III (867 – 1081), Washington.

Zugravu, N. 1997, Geneza creștinismului popular al românilor, Bibliotheca Thracologica 18, Bucharest.

- for articles: name of the author, year of publication, the title of the article, name of the publication or collective volume, tome, city of publication and editor – in case of collective volumes, and cited pages.

E.g.:

Biro, M. 1974, Roman Villas in Pannonia, ActaArchHung 26, 1 - 57.

Chapman, R., Randsborg, K. 1981, Approaches to the archaeology of death, in Chapman, R., Kinnes, I., Randsborg, K. (eds.), The Archaeology of Death, Cambridge, 1-38.

Titles of periodicals, volumes, catalogues, corpora, and encyclopaedias shall be abbreviated according to Hornblower, A. Spawforth, E. Eidinow, The Oxford Classical Dictionary (OCD), 4th ed., Oxford 2012. Any other abbreviations aside from the foregoing paper will be presented explicitly, at the end of the cited works page.

The abstract, written both in English will be added at the beginning of the article. The manuscript must also be accompanied by keywords and the explanation of the figures in English.

The maximum size of illustrations – drawings – must correspond to the mirror of an A4 page, except for maps, plans, profiles or tables that are made in sizes or formats that don't fit the page to be comprehensible to the reader. In case the figures don't cover an entire page their size exceeds the page mirror, then the author shall specify, using a pencil on the margin of the drawings the desired downscaling ratio. For a figure made of drawings at different scales, the author shall specify the scale used for each drawing.

Contributions sent for publication to the volume shall be accompanied by data regarding each author's institutional affiliation and contact information.
